

Turkish
Fruits & Vegetables

askturkiye.com

The Perfect Blend of Wellness and Flavor

Turkish Fruits and Vegetables

Conveniently located in the heart of Mediterranean with abundance of sunshine and fertile soil, Anatolia has always been a heavenly land for vegetal production, which is the leading sector of Turkish agriculture. Thanks to the generosity of the climate and other geographic conditions, all temperate, most subtropical and some tropical crops are cultivated to provide the best, the healthiest and the most delicious nutrition to millions of consumers around the world.

Top Exported Product Range

- ✔ Citrus fruits
- ✔ Grapes
- ✔ Pomegranates
- ✔ Cherries
- ✔ Tomatoes
- ✔ Peppers
- ✔ Apples

Industry Facts

50
MILLION
TONS

Over 50 million tons of fruit and vegetable production per year

Top export markets: Russian Federation, Iraq, Germany, Romania, Ukraine

World leader in figs and quinces export

Holds 10,5% market share in total agricultural exports

Exported to 142 countries

Cherries, apricots and grapes are national export brands

Reasons Why You Should Prefer Turkish Fruits and Vegetables

01 Top product quality thanks to best geographic conditions

World renowned for their impeccable aroma 02

03 Proximity to major markets and logistic advantages

Best prices due to low production costs 04

05 International production standards ensuring health and environmental safety

Year-round production 06

07 Upward trend of organic production

World export leader in assorted products 08

