

Turkish
Healthcare

Working for the Good of the World

Turkish Medical & Pharmaceutical Products

Turkish Healthcare Industry

Conveniently located in the heart of three continents, Turkey is the rising star of international wellness and health industry, with her dynamic and skilled workforce, intense investments, booming number of hospitals and medical institutions, and extensive healthcare services. Unsurprisingly, the medical product and pharmaceutical industries are both thriving to become the impeccable healthcare services provided to millions from all around the globe.

Intensive R&D projects, cost benefits and good logistics all contribute to Turkey's innovative strengths and solid know-how to enable the best of medical and pharmaceutical products and technologies for the common good of mankind.

Turkish Pharmaceutical Industry Facts

Exported to 180 countries

Top export markets: Iraq, Switzerland, Azerbaijan-Nakhchivan

31 R&D centers with 1,298 employees

492 companies in the pharmaceutical industry

Around 35,000 employees in industry

Turkish Medical Industry Facts

Exported to 189 countries

Top medical exports to: Iraq, Libya, Italia

Annual export growth of 15%

3,350 medical device companies, 875 medical exporters

21 R&D centers

Reasons Why You Should Prefer Turkish Healthcare Products

01 High production capacity and product quality

Advanced technology and knowhow 02

03 Investment in molecular biology and recombinant technologies

High problem solving skills and strong adaptability 04

05 Close track of global innovations and trends

Packaging conducted by ICH regulations 06

07 Member of International Pharmaceutical Inspection Cooperation Scheme (PIC/S)

Competitive and reasonable prices for high quality 08

Turkey
Discover
the potential

Turkish
Healthcare